

Saturday, January 7, 2017

Wonderful Entertainment

Last night, Fr. Brian and I went to Disney Springs (formerly Downtown Disney) for dinner at Morimoto's. It was an excellent meal. Afterwards, we went outside and listened to some of the performers on the streets. One of them was Nicholas Marks. I could not believe the energy in this guy or the talent. He put a wonderful spin on many popular songs.

Here is his version of the theme from The Godfather. I hope you enjoy him as much as we did.

Posted by Rev. Michael J. Yadron at 19:12